Comparison

2010 & 2015

Primary substance identified upon treatment admission

2010

Inpatient Admissions

266

Alcohol (50%) Heroin (15%) Other (35%)

Outpatient Admissions

1559

Alcohol (49%) Heroin (12%) MJ (20%) Other (18%)

Residential Admissions

183

Alcohol (34%) Heroin (26%) Other (41%)

2015

Inpatient Admissions

296

Alcohol (37%) Heroin (34%) Other (28%)

Outpatient Admissions

1686

Alcohol (35%) Heroin (26%) MJ (20%) Other (19%)

Residential Admissions

184

Alcohol (27%) Heroin (57%) Other (16%)

Summary :

Local treatment data demonstrates an average 10% increase in inpatient/outpatient admissions from 2010 to 2015. In that same time frame, clients identifying heroin as their primary substance of choice increased by 149% for inpatient admissions and 129% for outpatient admissions. Clients identifying alcohol as their primary substance of choice decreased by 23% for inpatient admissions and 30% for outpatient admissions.

SOURCES :

NYS OASAS LGU/County Admission Item Statistics Reports 2010-2015

This infographic was brought to you by :
Broome Opioid Abuse Council