

Elder Law Resource Guide

Below is a listing of area attorneys that are identified in the August 2011-2012 Verizon Broome County Plus phone book as practicing in the field of Elder Law or Estate Planning and Administration.

You may wish to ask personal acquaintances that have used attorneys for their recommendations; not all attorneys who work on elder law issues are listed in the phone book. Also, before hiring an attorney, you can contact the lawyer disciplinary agency in the state where the lawyer maintains a business address to determine if there has been any public discipline of the attorney, such as suspension, disbarment or censure. For attorneys practicing in Broome County, contact the Committee on Professional Standards in Albany at 518-285-8350.
