MINIMUM SALARY	VACANCIES	LOCATION OF WORK
$23.8457/hour	1	Broome County Department of Social Services

Eligible list: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used to fill vacancies, as they occur, in all Broome County departments, towns, villages, school districts, and special districts under the jurisdiction of the Broome County Personnel Officer.

Vacancies – Positions may be filled temporarily at this time; however, the resulting eligible list must be used to permanently fill the position

Residency: There are no residency requirements for this examination. However, preference in appointment may be given to successful candidates who, at the time of examination, are legal residents of the locality in which appointment is to be made. For appointment within Broome County departments, preference will be given to candidates who are residents of Broome County, OR an adjoining county (TIOGA, CORTLAND, DELAWARE AND CHENANGO) at the time of examination except as stated in Resolution 21-253.

DUTIES: This position exists in the Broome County Department of Social Services and involves responsibility to plan and oversee the provision of services to persons with serious and persistent mental illness to ensure that these clients gain access to needed medical, psychiatric, social, educational, psychological and other services necessary to meet basic human needs. The program of intensive case management is targeted to populations with particularly problematic service needs. This group includes people who have a diagnosable mental illness and functional impairments which may seriously interfere with the ability to live independently and which persist over a prolonged period of time. Deficits in self care, social functioning, activities of daily living, economic self sufficiency, self direction and concentration are common. However, most clients can show marked improvement when they are given the community supports and service they need. Many of the clients to be served by the program have had repeated hospitalizations, reject service and refuse medication, have frequent crises, lack social or family networks, and display severe psychiatric symptomatology when confronted with stress. The role of the Case Manager is to identify clients in need of case management services, assure the assessment of clients on their caseload, determine resources needed, coordinate and integrate written service plans, facilitate service delivery, coordinate treatment plans with service providers, provide services to prevent or resolve crises, and is responsible for community support and education activities. Case management is intended to be the mechanism to ensure the mental health system meets the needs of the client population, and the services reach the client concerned. The work is performed under the general supervision of a Case Supervisor Grade A or Clinical Social Worker with leeway allowed for exercise of independent judgement in carrying out details of the work. Supervision over the work of others is not a responsibility of employees in this class. The incumbent does related work as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

A) Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with a bachelor's degree* and three years of experience either providing mental hygiene services to patient/clients or linking patients/clients to services essential to successfully living in a community setting (e.g. medical, psychiatric, social, educational, legal, housing and financial services); OR

B) Possession of a Master's degree from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university and one year of experience as outlined in A) above; OR

C) An equivalent combination of training and experience as outlined in A) and B) above.

Note: *A bachelor's degree including thirty (30) semester credit hours in sociology and/or psychology may be substituted for one-year of experience.
Note: Mental hygiene includes the areas of mental health, alcoholism services, substance abuse services, mental retardation and development disability programs and related fields.
Note: A minimum of one year of experience is required.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT: Possession of a valid license to operate a motor vehicle in the State of New York will be required at time of appointment and maintain same while in the title.

Anticipated eligibility: If you expect to complete the educational requirement by June 30, 2023, you can be admitted to this examination. If successful on the examination, you will not be certified for appointment until you have submitted proof of completion of the requirements to the Broome County Department of Personnel. Proof must be submitted by August 30, 2023; failure to do so will result in removal of your name from the eligible list. You must meet the experience requirement, if any, before the examination date.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas.

Preparing written material
These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.
Principles and practices of social casework
These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices used to provide casework services to individuals and/or families of all ages, backgrounds, and circumstances. Questions will test for application of this knowledge in various settings and will include such topics as assessment, monitoring and evaluating services, counseling, referrals, and advocacy.
Working with individuals to promote mental health
These questions test for knowledge of characteristics, causes and treatment methods associated with working with individuals who may have mental, developmental, physical, social and substance abuse disorders and/or disabilities. Questions cover such topics as establishing, maintaining and terminating client relationships; recognizing, interpreting, and responding to individual and group behaviors, as well as crisis situations; and facilitating access to essential services such as financial, housing, medical, educational, legal, vocational, and recreational.
Interviewing
These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in obtaining information from individuals through structured conversations. These questions require you to apply the principles, practices, and techniques of effective interviewing to hypothetical interviewing situations. Included are questions that present a problem arising from an interviewing situation, and you must choose the most appropriate course of action to take.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm

Candidates must bring their picture ID and two sharpened #2 pencils to the examination. USE OF CALCULATOR IS ALLOWED FOR THIS EXAMINATION. Devices with typewriter keyboards, spell checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

Rating: This written examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service, in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of examinations will apply to this written test.
Applying for civil service examinations in multiple jurisdictions when examinations are scheduled on same date:
If you have applied for both a Broome County examination and an examination for another jurisdiction, both of which are scheduled for the same date, you must submit a Broome County Cross-filing Form indicating the site at which you intend to take your examination. The cross-filing form is available in our Department or online at http://gobroomecounty.com/files/personnel/pdfs/Crossfiling.pdf and should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the examinations. Failure to submit the cross-filing form in a timely manner may result in our not being able to accommodate your request to sit at your choice of exam sites. When taking both a State and Broome County examination, you will be required to take all your examinations at a State examination center. You will be advised by the State when and where to report for your examinations.
Religious accommodation/handicapped candidates/military personnel: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application form.
Military Law provides special rights for members of the armed forces whose military service conflicts with scheduled civil service testing. Section 243-b (2) of Military Law states that "any member of the organized militia or reserves, who, because of active military duty other than for training purposes, missed the application filing period for an examination and as a result is deprived of the opportunity to compete in an examination, shall be given a special military make-up exam". Please contact the Department of Personnel for more information.
Special Requirement for Appointment in School Districts and BOCES:
Per Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, to be employed in a position designated by a school district or BOCES as involving direct contact with students, a clearance for employment from the State Education Department is required.
Background Investigation: Applicants may be required to undergo a State and national criminal history background investigation, which will include a fingerprint check, to determine suitability for appointment. Failure to meet the standards for the background investigation may result in disqualification.
Children of Firefighters and Police Officers killed in the line of duty: "In conformance with section 85-A of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform the Department of Personnel of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established."
General Information/Instructions: A copy of the general instructions, announcement and applications may be obtained upon request to the Broome County Department of Personnel or from our website at www.gobroomecounty.com.
