- B) Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with an Associates' Degree in chemistry, environmental studies, natural science, environmental or natural resource management, or closely related field including or supplemented by 8 credits in chemistry, and two years' experience in environmental, solid, or hazardous waste management; OR
- C) Graduation from high school or possession of an equivalency diploma and five years' experience in environmental, solid, or hazardous waste management
- D) An equivalent combination of training and experience as indicated in (A) and (B) above.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS DURING THE PROBATIONARY PERIOD:

- 1) OSHA 40-hour HAZWOPER Certification; AND
- 2) Certified for respirator use in accordance with Department of Occupational Safety and Health (DOSH).

Anticipated eligibility: According to Civil Service Law, section 54, applicants who are within 12 months of meeting the minimum age or attaining the minimum educational requirements following the date of the examination, may take the civil service exam, but will be restricted from certification until such time that the minimum age or educational requirements are met

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas.

Principles and practices of solid waste management

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in planning, implementing, coordinating, and evaluating solid waste management programs, including appropriate solid waste management strategies, solid waste management responsibilities and recommendations of federal, New York State, and local governmental agencies, the advantages and disadvantages of the various solid waste management and disposal practices typically used, and related legal requirements contained in current federal and New York State laws, rules, and regulations.

Collection, analysis and interpretation of data

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in the collection and organization of technical data, and for the ability to evaluate and analyze technical data involving the field of refuse collection and solid waste management.

Scheduling of work and equipment

These questions test for knowledge of work scheduling principles and for the ability to arrange work and equipment assignments in a manner that will achieve work goals while staying within scheduling criteria. This may include such areas as setting up vacation or work schedules, taking into consideration such factors as seniority, work skills, duty hours, and shift coverage.

Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication "How to take a written test" helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available online at: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>

Candidates must bring their picture ID and two sharpened #2 pencils to the examination. USE OF CALCULATOR IS ALLOWED FOR THIS EXAMINATION. Devices with typewriter keyboards, spell checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

Rating: This written examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service, in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of examinations will apply to this written test.

Applying for civil service examinations in multiple jurisdictions when examinations are scheduled on same date:

If you have applied for both a Broome County examination and an examination for another jurisdiction, both of which are scheduled for the same date, you must submit a Broome County Cross-filing Form indicating the site at which you intend to take your examination. The cross-filing form is available in our Department or online at <http://gobroomecounty.com/files/personnel/pdfs/Crossfiling.pdf> and should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the examinations. Failure to submit the cross-filing form in a timely manner may result in our not being able to accommodate your request to sit at your choice of exam sites. When taking both a State and Broome County examination, you will be required to take all your examinations at a State examination center. You will be advised by the State when and where to report for your examinations.

Religious accommodation/handicapped candidates/military personnel: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application form.

Military Law provides special rights for members of the armed forces whose military service conflicts with scheduled civil service testing.

Section 243-b (2) of Military Law states that "any member of the organized militia or reserves, who, because of active military duty other than for training purposes, missed the application filing period for an examination and as a result is deprived of the opportunity to compete in an examination, shall be given a special military make-up exam". Please contact the Department of Personnel for more information.

Special Requirement for Appointment in School Districts and BOCES:

Per Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, to be employed in a position designated by a school district or BOCES as involving direct contact with students, a clearance for employment from the State Education Department is required.

Background Investigation: Applicants may be required to undergo a State and national criminal history background investigation, which will include a fingerprint check, to determine suitability for appointment. Failure to meet the standards for the background investigation may result in disqualification.

Children of Firefighters and Police Officers killed in the line of duty: "In conformance with section 85-A of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform the Department of Personnel of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established."

General Information/Instructions: A copy of the general instructions, announcement and applications may be obtained upon request to the Broome County Department of Personnel or from our website at www.gobroomecounty.com.
