MINIMUM SALARY	VACANCIES	LOCATION OF WORK
$25.7205/hour	1	Broome County Department of Public Works/Solid Waste Management

Eligible list: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used to fill vacancies, as they occur, in all Broome County departments, towns, villages, school districts, and special districts under the jurisdiction of the Broome County Personnel Officer.

Vacancies – Positions may be filled temporarily at this time; however, the resulting eligible list must be used to permanently fill the position.

Residency: There are no residency requirements for this examination. However, preference in appointment may be given to successful candidates who, at the time of examination, are legal residents of the locality in which appointment is to be made. For appointment within Broome County departments, preference will be given to candidates who are residents of Broome County at the time of examination except as stated in Resolution 07-84.

DUTIES: This position provides technical assistance to all project components of the Department of Public Works, Division of Solid Waste. The work involves conducting research, planning, design and construction of solid waste management initiatives and facilities. The work is performed under the general supervision of the Director of Solid Waste Management (DSWM) with leeway allowed for the use of independent judgement. Supervision may be exercised over part-time clerical staff, consultants, volunteers, temporaries and interns. Does related work as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:
Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with a Bachelor's Degree or higher in engineering, environmental science, natural resource management or closely related field, AND two (2) years of experience in the field of solid waste management involving landfill and environmental permitting, oversight of landfill design and construction projects, water quality and air monitoring, and environmental assessment.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT AT TIME OF APPOINTMENT: Possession of the appropriate level of Motor Vehicle Operator's License.

Anticipated eligibility: If you expect to complete the educational requirement by June 30, 2022, you can be admitted to this examination. If successful on the examination, you will not be certified for appointment until you have submitted proof of completion of the requirements to the Broome County Department of Personnel. Proof must be submitted by August 30, 2022; failure to do so will result in removal of your name from the eligible list. You must meet the experience requirement, if any, before the examination date.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION:

Educating and interacting with the public

These questions test for knowledge of techniques used to interact effectively with individuals and/or community groups, to educate or inform them about topics of concern, to publicize or clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with others in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Principles and practices of solid waste management

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in planning, implementing, coordinating, and evaluating solid waste management programs, including appropriate solid waste management strategies, solid waste management responsibilities and recommendations of federal, New York State, and local governmental agencies, the advantages and disadvantages of the various solid waste management and disposal practices typically used, and related legal requirements contained in current federal and New York State laws, rules, and regulations.

Collection, analysis and interpretation of data

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in the collection and organization of technical data, and for the ability to evaluate and analyze technical data involving the field of refuse collection and solid waste management.

Understanding and interpreting Federal, State, and Local laws, codes, rules, and regulations

These questions test for the ability to understand, interpret, and apply various federal, New York State, and local laws, codes, rules, and regulations. All the information needed to answer the questions will be provided in the written material.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication "How to take a written test" helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm

Candidates must bring their picture ID and two sharpened #2 pencils to the examination. USE OF CALCULATOR IS ALLOWED FOR THIS EXAMINATION. Devices with typewriter keyboards, spell checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

Rating: This written examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service, in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of examinations will apply to this written test.

Applying for civil service examinations in multiple jurisdictions when examinations are scheduled on same date:

If you have applied for both a Broome County examination and an examination for another jurisdiction, both of which are scheduled for the same date, you must submit a Broome County Cross-filing Form indicating the site at which you intend to take your examination. The cross-filing form is available in our Department or online at http://gobroomecounty.com/files/personnel/pdfs/Crossfiling.pdf and should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the examinations. Failure to submit the cross-filing form in a timely manner may result in our not being able to accommodate your request to sit at your choice of exam sites. When taking both a State and Broome County examination, you will be required to take all your examinations at a State examination center. You will be advised by the State when and where to report for your examinations.

Religious accommodation/handicapped candidates/military personnel: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application form.

Military Law provides special rights for members of the armed forces whose military service conflicts with scheduled civil service testing. Section 243-b (2) of Military Law states that “any member of the organized militia or reserves, who, because of active military duty other than for training purposes, missed the application filing period for an examination and as a result is deprived of the opportunity to compete in an examination, shall be given a special military make-up exam”. Please contact the Department of Personnel for more information.

Special Requirement for Appointment in School Districts and BOCES:

Per Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, to be employed in a position designated by a school district or BOCES as involving direct contact with students, a clearance for employment from the State Education Department is required.

Background Investigation: Applicants may be required to undergo a State and national criminal history background investigation, which will include a fingerprint check, to determine suitability for appointment. Failure to meet the standards for the background investigation may result in disqualification.

Children of Firefighters and Police Officers killed in the line of duty: “In conformance with section 85-A of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform the Department of Personnel of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.”

General Information/Instructions: A copy of the general instructions, announcement and applications may be obtained upon request to the Broome County Department of Personnel or from our website at www.gobroomecounty.com.
