MINIMUM SALARY	VACANCIES	LOCATION OF WORK
$29.02/hour	Anticipated	Broome County Department of Public Works

Eligible list: Successful candidates will be certified to fill vacancies only in the department in which they are employed.

Vacancies- Positions may be filled temporarily at this time; however, the resulting eligible list must be used to permanently fill the position.

DUTIES: The incumbent in this position is a working supervisor with responsibility for the safe and efficient operation, maintenance, repair, planning and installation of heating, ventilating, air conditioning and refrigeration systems at County facilities. This is a highly skilled position involving expertise in the operation and maintenance of a large complex system of boilers, chillers, air handlers and associated control equipment. The work is performed under the general supervision of a higher level administrator, who provides work assignments and direction. The incumbent exercises direct supervision over subordinate personnel involved in the operation, maintenance and repair of the heating, ventilating, air conditioning and refrigeration systems. Does related work as required.

PROMOTIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: On or before the date of the examination, candidates must be permanently employed in the competitive class (or designated as non-competitive in accordance with Section 55A of Civil Service Law) in the HVAC Systems Technician III position and must have served continuously on a permanent or contingent permanent basis for 48 months preceding the date of the written test as a HVAC Systems Technician III at Broome County Department of Public Works.

Anticipated eligibility: If you expect to meet the promotional qualifications by September 4, 2023, you will be tentatively admitted to this examination.

NOTE: Education and/or training at a regionally accredited or New York State registered college, university or technical school in heating, ventilating, air conditioning or closely related field may be substituted for experience on a year-for-year basis.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS AT TIME OF APPOINTMENT:
1) Certification as a Universal (Type I, II & III) Refrigerant Transition and Recovery Technician as required by the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 82, Subpart F, and approved by the Environmental Protection Agency.
2) Possession of the appropriate level Motor Vehicle Operator's License.

Special Requirement for Appointment in School Districts and BOCES
Per Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, to be employed in a position designated by a school district or BOCES as involving direct contact with students, a clearance for employment from the State Education Department is required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas.

Reading and interpreting plans and specifications

These questions test for the ability to read and understand technical written specifications and plans and diagrams of building mechanical systems. All the information needed to answer the questions will be in the written material and/or diagrams provided.

Operation, maintenance and repair of steam-generating systems including related mechanical and electrical equipment

These questions test for knowledge of the operating principles involved in various types of steam boilers and their accessories; the proper operating practices used when working with steam generating systems; and the functions of the various types of auxiliary mechanical and electrical equipment found in steam generating systems.

Energy management, conservation, and environmental and safety concerns

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in conducting building and facility energy management programs, including the application of appropriate energy efficiency and conservation methods, environmental controls, and safe operating practices.

Operation, maintenance, and repair of heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and refrigeration equipment

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in the operation, maintenance, and repair of heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and refrigeration systems, including piping, valves, and related mechanical and electrical components, and system troubleshooting and upkeep.

Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication "How to take a written test" helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available online at: https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm

Candidates must bring their picture ID and two sharpened #2 pencils to the examination. USE OF CALCULATORS IS ALLOWED FOR THIS EXAMINATION. Devices with typewriter keyboards, spell checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

Seniority Credit: Seniority is based on the length of continuous permanent classified service in the jurisdiction in which promotion is sought, with points added to an eligible's passing score for each appropriate five year period or fraction thereof in accordance with the following schedule:

Less than 1 year……..0 points
1 year up to 6 years……1 point
Over 6 years up to 11 years …….2 points
Over 11 years up to 16 years……..3 points
Over 16 years up to 21 years……..4 points
Over 21 years……..…5 points

Rating: The written examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service, in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of examinations will apply to this written test.

Applying for civil service examinations in multiple jurisdictions when examinations are scheduled on same date:
If you have applied for both a Broome County examination and an examination for another jurisdiction, both of which are scheduled for the same date, you must submit a Broome County Cross-filing Form indicating the site at which you intend to take your examination. The cross-filing form is available in our Department or online at http://gobroomecounty.com/files/personnel/pdfs/Crossfiling.pdf and should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the examinations. Failure to submit the Crossfiling form in a timely manner may result in our not being able to accommodate your request to sit at your choice of exam sites. When taking both a State and Broome County examination, you will be required to take all your examinations at a State examination center. You will be advised by the State when and where to report for your examinations.

Religious accommodation/handicapped candidates/military personnel: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application form.

Military Law provides special rights for members of the armed forces whose military service conflicts with scheduled civil service testing. Section 243-b (2) of Military Law states that "any member of the organized militia or reserves, who, because of active military duty other than for training purposes, missed the application filing period for an examination and as a result is deprived of the opportunity to compete in an examination, shall be given a special military make-up exam". Please contact the Department of Personnel for more information.

Children of Firefighters and Police Officers killed in the line of duty: "In conformance with section 85-A of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform the Department of Personnel of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established."

General Information/Instructions: A copy of the general instructions, announcements and applications may be obtained upon request to the Broome County Department of Personnel Department or from our website at www.gobroomecounty.com.
