FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UPDATE FROM NYS DMV RE: AIRPORT EDL/CDL SCANNING ISSUES

Binghamton, NY. NYS DMV has been advised by the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) that the problems with TSA staff at airports scanning NYS Enhanced Commercial Driver License is linked to the TSA's ID scanners used at airports. A system update that TSA believes may fix the problem is expected to be implemented later this month. In the meantime, travelers who have an Enhanced Commercial Driver License are encouraged to bring additional identification with them when flying.
