

Local support groups that may be of interest to older adults and/or caregivers

There are several support groups available to older adults and/or caregivers. These options are a great resource for information and connection to others. If you are in need of other services to support you in your caregiver role please contact the Office for Aging Caregiver Services Program by calling 607-778-2411. Through the Office for Aging caregivers can get information over the phone, in the office or in their home to help them understand local services and connect them to programs they may need. Visit www.gobroomecounty.com/senior to learn more.

Caregiver relevant information is also published in the Caregiver Corner section of the Senior News.

You can find Senior News at your local senior center or subscribe by calling 607-778-2411.

An online copy of the Senior News can be found at www.gobroomecounty.com/senior/seniornews.

For other information about services that support older adults in the community contact the Office for Aging at 607-778-2411 or NY Connects at 607-778-2278
