BROOME COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE PRESS RELEASE

BCSO Chief Civil Deputy Jesse Genter Recognized as NYS Civil Deputy of the Year

(TOWN OF DICKINSON, NY) The Chief Civil Deputy of the Broome County Sheriff's Office has been named the 2026 Civil Deputy of the Year by the New York State Sheriff's Institute.

A veteran of the Broome County Sheriff's Office for over 20 years, Genter currently oversees the BCSO Civil Division as one of the longest-serving Civil Chiefs in New York State. He also serves as an instructor for the New York State Sheriff's Institute's Civil School, which provides training programs for Sheriffs' civil personnel statewide.

"Chief Civil Deputy Genter is known throughout New York State for his knowledge and expertise," said New York State Sheriff's Institute Executive Director Chris O'Brien. "As one of our lead instructors, Genter has trained deputies and civil employees across our state on civil operations. His role requires perfection and an incredible amount of knowledge. He's been a valuable partner over the years, performing operational audits across the state and frequently serving as an advisor to the Sheriff's Institute on civil operations and policies."

"I take great satisfaction in helping teach our deputies how to be safe, how to be respectful and how to do the right thing," said Chief Civil Deputy Jesse Genter. "You're never wrong to do the right thing. The Sheriff's Institute is a great organization, they've always let me do my thing and trusted me to do it well. Sheriff Akshar and Undersheriff Davis and our Civil Division have been amazing and I'm proud to be a part of this team."

"Ever since our administration began, there has never been a question of trust when it comes to Chief Civil Deputy Genter's expertise and ability," said Sheriff Fred Akshar and Undersheriff Sam Davis. "We trust that he's doing a great job, taking care of his team and taking care of his students by teaching them the right way to administer their duties. Time and again, that trust has been affirmed. We sincerely appreciate his work and his crucial role to the success of the Broome County Sheriff's Office."

BCSO Civil Division

The Civil Division of the Broome County Sheriff's Office is responsible for the enforcement of all civil processes in the County. This division handles matters received from Broome County Courts, attorneys, and many Broome County residents.

The Civil Division is responsible for numerous services and enforcement of these services, including but not limited to summonses, income and property executions, evictions, and subpoenas. Also included are family court papers and orders of protection.

New York State Sheriff's Institute and New York State Sheriffs' Association

The New York State Sheriffs' Institute (NYSSI) is a not-for-profit organization that was formed in 1979 to operate the charitable and educational programs formerly conducted by the New York State Sheriffs' Association. Since 1934, the Sheriffs' Association has helped New York's Sheriffs to serve and protect the citizenry through member-supported training programs, accreditation, legislative advocacy, and public safety programs.
