BROOME COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE PRESS RELEASE

New Recruits Join the Broome County Sheriff's Office Law Enforcement Division

The Broome County Sheriff's Office welcomed their newest recruits to join the Broome County Sheriff's Office Law Enforcement Division on Friday.

Brandon Kilpatrick, Gabriellah Ruark, Richard Parsons and Cameron Bobier were all officially sworn in by Undersheriff Davis and will begin their training at the Broome County Sheriff's Law Enforcement Academy in the coming weeks.

"We are proud to welcome these four young recruits onto our team and grateful to their families for supporting them in their desire to serve and protect our community's families," said Sheriff Fred Akshar. "In the coming weeks, they will experience some of the most grueling and intensive law enforcement training available in New York State, but it will provide them with the knowledge and skills necessary to help keep themselves and our citizens safe. We wish them all the best as they begin their careers in one of the noblest professions a person can enter."
