BROOME COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE PRESS RELEASE

WARRANT UPDATE: Wanted Broome County Fugitive Arrested in Town of Union

(TOWN OF UNION, NY) Broome County's #5 Most Wanted Fugitive was arrested this morning by the US Marshals Regional Fugitive Task Force at an apartment on Squires Avenue in the Town of Union.

Matthew Knapp, age 42 of Kirkwood, was tracked down by the Broome County Sheriff's Office Warrants Division, arrested this morning without incident and transported to the Broome County Correctional Facility.

Knapp had been on the run since May 16, 2024, when he absconded from probation for a Sex Offender Registration Violation. Knapp further failed to update his address with the New York State Sex Offender Registry after the violation of probation warrant was issued, and an additional warrant was issued for Failure to Register Under the Sex Offender Registration Act (Second Offense), a Class D Felony.

The US Marshals Regional Fugitive Task Force is comprised of warrant officers from the Broome County Sheriff's Office, the Binghamton Police Department, the New York State Police and the US Marshals.

"Excellent police work by our Warrants Division and our partners at the US Marshals Regional Fugitive Task Force in bringing this wanted individual to justice," said Sheriff Fred Akshar.
